

Heart of a Dancer

The heart of the dancer longs to soar on the winds of the Creator of the Universe.

To dance is to enjoin the hosts of heaven in humble honor and worship to ADONAI.

The dancer bows low, not to man; but to the majesty of the Ancient of Days.

The dancer twirls, not in human strength, but on the winds of heaven as the Holy Spirit orchestrates heavens dance.

The dancer moves gracefully in humble movements; they pronounce the grace of the Father and the freedom of His provision.

To live before the Father in worship with the dance is the heart of the dancer.

A heart Father fully understands as He dances over His children.

© Jann Prince Oct. 15, 2000

